

Flexicard® F1000 Series

A cost-effective, account-based copier control solution, providing access control to photocopying facilities and allowing costs to be accounted against departmental budgets. The unit may also be configured to provide a means of prepayment for photocopying facilities.

Product Features:

- Account-based copier controller
- Enables copier access to be restricted to authorised users
- Allows copying costs to be recovered against departmental budgets
- Can be configured to provide prepayment for copying facilities
- Card only, Card + PIN or PIN only options
- 1000 account capacity
- Group and/or individual account limit policies
- Printed account and meter reports
- 4 copy prices (units)
- Choice of Microcard®, Proximity, Magnetic-Stripe or Keypad-Only technologies
- Easy to install, set up and use

F1000 Infra-red Reader